

OBG Week-End Scholarship Application

The Guild understands that a certain number of people who are interested in the skill of blacksmithing, are prevented from participating in a full week of blacksmith instruction because of time, financial, or scheduling issues. In order to open more opportunities for members to increase their knowledge of the wonderful craft of blacksmithing, the Ocmulgee Blacksmith Guild now offers a Week-End Scholarship in the amount of $450.

I understand that there are requirements and obligations that I must meet in order to receive this scholarship and I agree to the following terms:

1. My membership in the Ocmulgee Blacksmith Guild is current and paid in full.
2. I have been a member of the Ocmulgee Blacksmith Guild for at least 1 full year and have attended 4 meetings during that year.
3. I must make a nice forged item within 6 months of completing my course and donate it to the Ocmulgee Blacksmith Guild Auction.
4. I must write a how-to article for the Ocmulgee Blacksmith Guild newsletter within 3 months of the completion of my course.
5. I will demonstrate what I learned so that others might learn from my scholarship.
6. The above are only an outline of the basic requirements. The complete scholarship guidelines are available in the newsletter, posted on the Ocmulgee Blacksmith Guilds website (www.ocmulgeblacksmiths.org) or from the Scholarship Committee.
