

Ocmulgee Blacksmith Guild Scholarship Application

Revised January 5, 2020

Select the scholarship(s) you wish to apply for:

<input type="checkbox"/>	Judd Nelson Scholarship	This scholarship will pay up to $1500 toward any blacksmithing course
<input type="checkbox"/>	Terry Ellerbee Scholarship	This scholarship will pay up to $1500 toward any bladesmithing course
<input type="checkbox"/>	Weekend Blacksmithing	This scholarship will pay up to $750 toward any blacksmithing course. This scholarship is oriented towards those members who are prevented from participating in a full week of blacksmith instruction because of time, financial, or scheduling issues.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Complimentary Craft Weekend Scholarship	This scholarship will pay up to $750 towards a non-blacksmithing craft course for select crafts commonly associated with Blacksmithing. This is a scholarship opportunity for members who have interests such as leather crafting, nonferrous metal-smithing, and other select specialty courses as authorized by the scholarship committee.
	NOTE: if applying for any of the above scholarships you do not qualify for this one

These scholarships cover the cost of the course, including meals, room and board and school supplied material expenses. They do not include transportation.

Courses must be approved by the Scholarship Committee and must be used within one year of drawing unless an extension is approved by the Scholarship Committee.

I understand that there are requirements and obligations that I must meet in order to receive this scholarship and I agree to the following terms:

1. My membership in the Ocmulgee Blacksmith Guild is current and paid in full.
2. I have been a paid member of the Ocmulgee Blacksmith Guild for at least 1 full year and have attended 4 meetings during that year.
3. I must make and donate a forged item having a minimum value of $100 for the Ocmulgee Blacksmith Guild Auction within 6 months of completing my course.
4. I must write a how-to article for the Ocmulgee Blacksmith Guild newsletter within 3 months of the completion of my course.
5. I will demonstrate what I learned so that others might learn from my scholarship.

The above is only an outline of the basic requirements. The complete scholarship guidelines are available in the newsletter, posted on the Ocmulgee Blacksmith Guilds website (www.ocmulgeebblacksmiths.org) or from the Scholarship Committee.
